When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.
If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.
A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

London, 28th.—Political excitement is increasing throughout the country in view of the approaching general elections. The Cabinet met to day and favorably considered a dissolution of parliament before June.

Madrid, 28th—The phylloxera ravages in the vineyards are much more serious than at first believed. The recent storms have moreover caused considerable damage. The grape crop in Burgos and Segovia is completely lost.

Rome, 28th.—It has been discovered that during last year 4,349 boxes of objects of art, representing 20 millions of francs, were secretly exported.

Lisbon, 28th.—The Finance, Public Works and other Ministers have tendered their resignation, which the King has accepted. The King has asked Sr. Ferreira to recast the cabinet.

The news is confirmed that the British Government claims an indemnity in consequence of the rescission for the laying of the cable to the Azores.

Paris, 28th.—Baron Plazonit, deputy for Mayenne, and the Archbishop of Bourges died to-day.

Rotterdam, 28th—Six private docks were to-day destroyed by a fire and the losses are enormous. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Berlin, 28th—The decree prohibiting the immigration of Russian Jews has been withdrawn.

Durham, 28th—The miners here are still on strike owing to the proposed reduction of 13½ per cent in wages. The miners have issued a manifesto calling on miners throughout the country to join the strike. The strike is causing serious injury in the manufacturing districts, especially Cleveland.

Wellington (Kansas), 28th—A terrible cyclone has caused the death of 500 people and the loss of much property.

Zanzibar, 28th—Sixteen Arab slave traders have been sentenced to be hanged.

Vienna, 28th—The Finance Minister in a debate in the lower chamber recommended the immediate settlement of the monetary question, as every delay may foment the intrigues of the bi-metallic league in the United States.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

The public has had time to digest Pres. Pellegrini's message to Congress, and the general opinion seems to be that it contains little calling for either censure or praise: it is a colourless document. There was one subject which His Excellency ought to have brought forward most prominently, and yet he entirely omitted it: the lawless condition of Santa Fé, Corrientes and Mendoza, where murders are committed with empire impunity.

His message is in some manner a glorification of the Government as regards its policy in the past 12 months. He has, for example, rescued from dishonest concessionaires no less than 30,000 sq. miles of Public Lands. He has also delivered the citizens of Buenos Ayres, from an atrocious combination of Messrs. Baring and their friends in connexion with the Bateman Legacy, to plunder our city under the guise of Water-rates.

He has reduced the Floating Debt, burned a large amount of paper-money, put the finances on a better footing, and stopped all public works except the Madero Docks, to suspend the construction of which would probably be attended with grave if not ruinous consequences.

We give the President and his Cabinet credit for very many good conduct marks, but regret that he did not venture to advise Congress to proceed at once towards an arrangement with the London bondholders for the annulment of the Moratorium compact and a composition of the public debt.

Our readers both here and in England will be much interested in his remarks on Argentine railways. He says that during the last 28 years the Argentine Treasury has been paying guarantees on railways which, by virtue of their concession, were obliged to refund such payments on account of guarantee out of subsequent surplus earnings, but never yet has any company paid a shilling into the National Treasury.

The amount already paid by Government for such guarantees is £3,200,000 sterling. The total length of railways working in the republic is now 7,675 miles, an increase of 1,210 miles since last year.

In order to understand the financial position it is necessary, as we have done, to reduce the gold and currency accounts to one denomination. We give the figures in both forms.

The revenue of 1891 shewed a nominal increase (in currency) as compared with the preceding year, but there was, when reduced to gold, a decline of 29 per cent, viz—

	$ currency	$ gold
1890.....	67,500,000	= 26,900,000
1891.....	71,600,000	= 19,200,000

If the anticipations for the present year be borne out the revenue will reach 100 millions currency, say $30,000,000 gold, an increase of 11 per cent on the receipts of 1890.

The message gives us a succinct statement of the receipts and expenses for 15 months down to March 31st 1892. It is needless to say that there was a considerable deficit, over 30 millions currency, viz—

	$ currency
Revenue.....	97,350,000
Expenses.....	128,100,000
Deficit.....	30,750,000

To make matters still more difficult the Government had to meet the following extraordinary expenditure—

	$ currency
Old debts.....	15,300,000
Arms, ships &c.....	7,700,000
Entre Rios guarantee...	9,000,000
Total.....	32,000,000

This brought up the deficit to 63 millions currency, to meet which the following extraordinary ways and means were made available—

	$ currency
Morgan loan.....	56,650,000
Small note issue.....	1,750,000
Total.....	58,400,000

But for the balance of the Morgan loan the Government would have been in a very critical position. The issue of small notes was for the purpose of paying schoolmasters, to whom heavy arrears were due. At the same time we find that the Government burned $2,600,000 of currency. This mode of new issues and cremation of notes seems to us very absurd.

Taking merely the ordinary expenses of 1891-92 we find the outlay of 128 millions currency gives an average of 8,000,000$ monthly, say 96 millions per annum. We cannot, therefore, see much room to expect a surplus, and unless there be a surplus we cannot admit the advisability of continuing to burn notes. We say nothing as to the extraordinary expenses, except that we could wish to see such items altogether expunged from the Budget, as they imply in one form or other an increase of debt.

The public debt as stated in the Message is as follows, reduced to gold—

	$ gold	£ stg
Foreign....	175,500,000 =	35,000,000
Internal....	128,100,000 =	25,000,000
Total..	303,600,000 =	60,000,000

This is, of course, irrespective of provincial and municipal debts: if these were added the account would stand thus—

	$ gold	£ stg.
Nat. debt..	303,600,000 =	60,000,000
Prov. debt.	159,500,000 =	31,500,000
Municipal..	25,400,000 =	5,000,000
Total...	488,500,000 =	96,500,000

The total debt corresponds to £24 per inhabitant, against £20 in Great Britain. The total estimated earnings of the population are 417 millions of gold dollars, or $82,000,000 sterling per annum, those of the U. Kingdom 1,285 millions stg., say £21 per head in Argentina and £33 in G. Britain. This will suffice to show how comparatively heavy is the Argentine debt, and how necessary it is for the bondholders to come to some amicable arrangemnt.

Pres. Pellegrini goes into raptures over the Balance of Trade and says that the excess of exports in 15 months, amounting to 36,000,000 gold dollars, is so much fresh wealth added to the country. It would be a mere waste of energy on our part to prove to him that no country is enriched in this manner. If His Excellency could put a stop to all import trade the country would be poorer, not richer. We are glad to see that the import trade is rapidly reviving: it is the best sign of an improved state of things.

The total amount of currency in circulation on March 31st 1892 was 255,300,000$, equal at the present rate of exchange to £76,500,000 sterling, or double the note issue of the United Kingdom.

There is a decline in public instruction since 1889, viz:—

	1889	1891
Schools.....	3,056	2,828
Teachers.....	6,547	7,098
Pupils.....	259,700	237,000

As regards Nat. Colleges the President says they cost 707,000$ yearly, an outlay beyond all proportion to the good they do. He shews also that only 40 per cent of University students graduate, the rest losing their time.

On the whole the Message is a fair and impartial review of the condition of the Republic, and there is no attempt to throw dust in the eyes of people either here or in Europe.

THE CONSPIRACY.

Government has laid before Congress a very lengthy message on the recent conspiracy the discovery of which led to the declaration of the state of siege. We summarize this message as follows:—

Last year in a special message we informed you that the revolutionary movement at Catamarca was but a part of a vast plan. The truth of this statement has since been verified. The conspiracy discovered and suppressed in Cordoba was part of the same plan. The conspirators in Cordoba actually undermined the Government House and police-barracks with a view to blowing them up. A quantity of explosive materials was moreover discovered. The promoters of these conspiracies were not natives of the provinces but recognised agitators and even foreigners expelled from their own countries for similar reasons. The entire movement was directed in B. Ayres. Owing to the rapid steps of the Government, the anarchist plan was modified. In several provinces the conspirators refused to enter the field of action so long as the National Government was free to send forces from one point to another. It was therefore decided that the anarchist movement should be brought to a head in B. Ayres, the conspirators of the provinces acting simultanously. The principal director of the movement was Dr. Leandro Alem, who visited the provinces with a view to confer with the local conspirators. The National Government was in the meantime kept well informed as to the doings and plans of the conspirators. Officers in the army and navy and officials in the police force informed the Government that they had been asked to join the movement. The managers of public works informed the Government that they observed an unusual movement amongst their workmen, mostly foreigners, who were being recruited for some hidden purpose with which the promises of booty had something to do. Finally the secret became an open one. The plan was to attack the residences of the national authorities with natives and foreigners fully armed. The movement was to have been brought to a head before the elections of the 12th of February. The authorities were to be overthrown. The suborned police and army forces were to neutralise the action of the troops who remained faithful. The public alarm was very great. The National Government took precautions. The troops were encamped outside, and other measures adopted, which immediately disconcerted the conspirators and somewhat restored public confidence. In the meantime the elections took place and the rebel party was defeated. The conspirators then began an active propaganda, and bodies of citizens and foreigners paraded the streets, giving utterance to seditious cries. Public alarm revived; there was a general conviction that we were on the eve of a revolution. The Government received information that all the preparations were ready and that the only thing that remained to be done was to fix the day of the outbreak. The police arrested an individual who was the bearer of the following letter in Dr. Alem's handwriting:—

To Messrs Ramon Iramain and Castañeda.

Esteemed friends,

I suppose you have already spoken with the emissary Fernando Paz in Tucuman. Everything has been pushed forward actively; perseverance and patience. The task is a great one. It will involve great sacrifice. Don Juan Posse will leave shortly with fresh instructions. Do not send me emissaries like the bearer. He is too young, indiscreet and unsuitable. He has made us suffer a good deal with his talking.

Yours,
Leandro Alem.

The prisoner was cross-examined, and it was found that he had already been the bearer of several communications to and from Dr. Alem; that he attended the meetings where the revolution was discussed; that he knew where the dynamite bombs were stored. All this information was confirmed by another man arrested by the police. The Government was soon acquainted with all the details of the revolutionary plan, and the decree declaring a state of siege was immediately issued. The principal conspirators were arrested. Not a single compromising paper or firearm was found at the residences of the conspirators, who had evidently anticipated this measure of Government.

The police found the following letter sent by ex-deputy Mallea to Dr. Alem:—

To Dr. Alem

My dear friend,

We have had a meeting to formally discuss everything relating to the regeneration of this situation, in accordance with the plan directed by you. We have taken all the necessary steps. I am the Chairman of the Committee. We ought to be able to do something.

Yours
Vicente Mallea.

P.S. Address you letters to my wife.

A letter was moreover found from ex-Lt. Balaguer giving an account of his efforts to suborn the 9th of the Line. This letter was found in Santiago del Estero. Another letter found in the same town was from Dr. Alem to the conspirators there, advising them, in view of the gravity of the subjects he had to communicate, of the necessity of an interview. Other letters of similar import and from the same source were sent to other provinces. A letter from Dr. Alem dated Feb. 8th to Mr. Francisco Castañeda Vega alludes to the postponment of the "solution" owing to "powerful reasons." According to information received by Government the conspirators wore masks when transmitting their orders to the emissaries, in whom they did not appear to have full confidence.

The prisoners at first refused to answer any questions, but some of them subsequently replied to the cross-examination, taking it for granted that the Government knew all about the revolution, and all the proposed assaults on the police stations.

"One of the prisoners, Santillan, stated that his club were regularly drilled with wooden guns.

"A letter was found from Castañeda Vega to his wife. This letter was a sort of will, the writer forseeing a fatal document.....

"The dynamite bombs and other explosive materials were examined by Messrs. Lavalle and Puigarri, chemists.

"The prisoners, through the friends and relatives who came to visit them, sent word to the conspirators in the provinces not to abandon the plot, and renewed activity was observed.

"For the foregoing reasons we ask you to approve the state of siege."

Owing to pressure on our space we have not given the full text of the letters contained in the President's Message. Some of the letters are long, others short, but they all point to the existence of some plan known to the writers.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

ORME POISONED!

ETC. ETC.

(from our own Correspondent.)

April 30th

His Grace the Duke of Westminster sends the following telegram to the press:—

"There is no doubt that Orme was foully poisoned on Thursday in last week." He is not killed. On the contrary, since his bad tooth was extracted and his tonsils attended to, he has made satisfactory progress. So much so that, although scratched for the "Two Thousand Guineas," he is still first favourite for the Derby.

The Times thinks from the clearnes with which the day is named on which the following occurred more is known about the circumstance than the Duke thinks it necessary to publish. All we know as to the facts is that the poison is supposed to have been an irritant mineral substance. This opinion rests apparently upon the condition of the animal's gums. What we do not know yet is whether "Vet" or chemist made some mistake in treating the patient for sore throat. The world, the great world, sporting, religious, financial and political, which has shut its ears and eyes to chatter about Anarchists and Royal Academy pictures, and to all subjects save one, has made up its mind that Orme has been "hocussed" "nobbled" or whatever we choose to call that old dodge of the miscreants of the turf—a dodge which our polite sporting journals of the day, with tears of shame and indignation in their eyes, hoped had become "obsolescent" if not obsolate. In fact in the column before me on the subject which is absorbing public sympathy I can find in the absence of facts nothing but moralising. The Stock Exchange pauses in its daily drudgery to execrate the foul play of cornering on the turf. The respectable Liberal papers, whilst with trembling hand they give the latest quotations for the "Guineas," attribute the crime to the prevalence of betting. The out and out religious papers say "shame!"; and Mr. Sala rushes to his library of 14,000 volumes to give us in the Telegraph an erudite history of "nobbling" from prehistoric times. The sporting gents piously trust that the perpetrator of the dastardly act will be caught and throttled, and as for nobbling or any other sin on the turf, they thank God, such immoralities are less frequent than "rigging" gold mines, engineering "corners" in molasses, or promoting companies to make ropes out of sand.

Coming to less important matters, the Statist of to-day in addition to an article on the Central Argentine Railway in reference to the evils of competitive lines, publishes a few indignant remarks on the continued "gross mismanagement" and "imbecility" of the Times newspaper. "Why" says your financial contemporary "does not the Times propose at once the national endowment of the English land owners?" This remark is suggested by the protectionist tendencies of a leading article in the Times —tendencies which I grieve to say are common in other quarters and have been alluded to in my letter on Mr. Charles Booth's work on "Panperism." The explanation is comparatively easy. Not many years ago, the number of people who in England dared to have opinions of their own, were few, and individually unimportant and often half educated. Cheap literature and the modern means of speading information have stirred up the intellectual apathy and constitutional dulness of the Saxon. It has lately been the fashion to run counter to Orthodox opinion and affect the paradoxical. Each man has his "fad," his special interest, his peculiar class principle or creed to serve; and to these objects all others must succumb. If you hesitate as to the wisdom of bestowing the suffrage on women, you are ridiculed as a tory. If you are a Home Ruler, you are called a separatist, and are thought dead to the grandeur of the Imperialist idea. If like Lord Rosebery you are both Home Ruler and Imperial federalist you are mistrusted as inconsistent, flighty and unsafe. If you possess strong opinions as to the advantages of free trade, Mr. Booth doubts your humanity, and the Times taunts you with fanaticism. Something like Mr. Booth, and very like Mr. Chaplin, the Times will say that our fiscal arrangements we think based upon free trade are all very well, but what is a paltry tax of a shilling more or less on this or on that in comparison with the welfare of our colonies and the integrity of the empire? Were this plea honest, there might be something to say for it, though it is obviously founded on an error. But as the quick-eyed Statist seems to see and is not afraid to say, the plea of the Times is for one thing an affectation of superiority to general opinion such as a Mathew Arnold, a Balfour, an Oscar Wilde a W. H. Mallock, a Henry Sidgwick and other red-tie philosophers of the time might display at five o'clock teas, and what is much worse, in the case of the Times, it is a flagrant lie, intended to conceal its own vulgar instincts in favour of the defence of property and individual interests.

Deeming's trial is being continued to-day at Melbourne; but up to the hour at which I write no telegram has arrived. His defence still rests upon the plea of epilepsy, hereditary and insanity. The latter point is indignantly denied by his brother and friends in Birkenhead. Possibly his frequently reported confessions of his identity with Jack the Ripper are only part of his cunning; but so far we know very little about it.

I observe your printers "boiled" Mrs. Montagu. They will be glad to know that she is still alive and apparently very well taken care of under the special charge of Mr. Jackson, the Irish Secretary, who is indignant at the pertinacity of members of the House intruding questions in regard to the naturally benevolent treatment of a highly connected criminal. Mrs. Osborne is to be released next week; and Captain Verney is out, after spending his term of imprisonment in the hospital, which was more suited to his rank than a common cell. The Hon. Patrick Greville Nugent is committed for trial for assaulting a young lady in a first-class carriage on the Brighton line. He is forty, married, dark, and as the reporters say, "has a west end appearance." Possibly his appearance will get him off. Another "alleged" amorous gentleman, a Mr. Campion—connected with the biscuit people, Huntley and Palmer—has been tried for improper relations with a young girl of 15, a Miss Foote. The jury stopped the case, on the scarcely to be mentioned plea, that no medical evidence had been produced.

You will see in the South American Journal and in various extracts from the financial papers you will receive that your remarks on the increased receipts of the Buenos Ayres Custom House followed by a gradual decline in the gold premium have produced here a lively faith in the prospects of the Argentine Republic. The Argentine securities maintain their improved position in the London market, but there is little business doing in spite of a 2 per cent bank rate and the continuance of fine spring-like weather. Political affairs connected with May Day celebrations on the Continent have created there a slight depression which perhaps affects the London market. Our own May Day demonstrations excite little interest. As on the occasion of a royal procession or Lord Mayor's show, ladies are invited to clubs and places where the windows give on the route of the Socialists' march to Hyde Park to-morrow, whilst the Anarchists are spouting in one leafy nook of the national demesne, the ladies and their attendant admirers will hold their Church parade as usual in the well known walks by the Serpentine.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

The event of the day in the provinces is the opening of the Agricultural Congress at Esperanza, Santa Fé. The list of delegates would fill a column. Suffice it to say that all classes and nationalities are represented. The Congress was opened on the 25th of May; and at the same time that grim-visaged Mars lit up the Plaza Victoria with a bellicose smile, Ceres held her court in Esperanza—a double fete: the defenders of peace on one side, the laborers and votaries of peace on the other. Both are essentially necessary for the progress and advancement of the Republic, but the main and reassuring feature is that that we have both elements, for how many South American states are there which have the bellicose element and lack the other. However this may be, the 25th this year will be a memorable day on account of the opening of this Agricultural Congress, which shews that, while politicians have been making a good deal of noise, silent labor has yielded abundant fruit and a large part of the population, removed from political strife, have prospered and progressed. On Sunday several important papers were read, including one by that energetic dignitary, Mr. Gabriel Carrasco, on the necessity of opening meteorological offices. Engineer Palacios read a paper on roads. Engineer Adolfo Weiss another on agricultural syndicates. Mr. Rodriguez read a paper on crop insurances, and Mr. Silva one on immigration. These themes shew what attention is being paid to agriculture, which during the session will be examined from every stand point. The Congress will be closed on 2nd prox.

THE MURRIETA COLLECTION

There was a distinguished gathering of art connoisseurs and dealers at Messrs. Christie and Manson's auction-room on Saturday afternoon, when the first portion of the valuable collection of modern paintings and water-colours, lately the property of the Messrs. Murrieta, was brought to the hammer. The principal buyers were Mr. Agnew, Mr. McLean, Mr. Vokins, Mr. McQueen, Mr. Gooden and the Messrs. Tooth. Many of the finest works of David Cox were included in the catalogue, and one or two of his pictures realised very high prices. "The Vale of Clwyd," an exquisite landscape by this famous artist, was saluted with loud applause. The bidding started at 1,000 guineas, and ran up to 4,500 guineas, at which sum it was knocked down to Mr. Agnew, who, it is said bought it for the Manchester Art Gallery. This is the second time this picture has been sold in Messrs. Christie's room. It was knocked down some years ago to Mr. Trimmings, of Birmingham, who disposed of it privately to Messrs. Murrieta. "Barden Tower" was also purchased by Mr. Agnew for 1,000 guineas, and "Reapers Returning Home" was knocked down to Messrs. Tooth for 1,130 guineas. "Going to the Hayfield," another fine drawing, by Cox, from the collection of Lady Buxton, fetched 1,050 guineas. A grand Scottish landscape, by Copley Fielding, was bought by Mr. Agnew for 1,200 guineas, and another specimen of the same artist's work, "Off the Isle of Wight," was knocked down to the same buyer for 245 guineas. Mr. Birket Foster's works also realised good prices. "A Country Lane," a fine specimen, became the property of Messrs. Tooth for 330 guineas.

Another pretty picture by Mr. Foster was knocked down to Mr. Agnew for 290 guineas; and "Springtime" realised 100 guineas. A small landscape by Turner was sold for 300 guineas, and a rare specimen of P. De Wint's work, "View of Cambridge," was knocked down to the same buyer (Mr. Agnew) for 600 guineas. Two pictures by Samuel Prout fetched 265 guineas and 190 guineas respectively. The Home Secretary made a spirited attempt to secure one of these, but was defeated by Mr. Agnew. A small canvas by R. P. Bonnington was purchased by Mr. Agnew for 310 guineas. Three examples of Constable fetched 365 guineas, and a few works of Carl Haag also realised good prices. The sale will be continued on Monday and Tuesday, and the second portion of this famous collection will be put up on Saturday, 24th May, and the following Monday.

There was a large attendance of buyers yesterday afternoon when Messrs Christie resumed the sale of the first portion of the collection of water-colour drawings lately the property of Messrs Murrieta. The Home Secretary was again present. The bidding at times was spirited, and the total realised was about £7,000. Among the highest prices obtained were "Mount Moriah," engraved in Finden's "Illustrations of the Bible," by J. M. W. Turner, R.A., 365 gs.; "Jerusalem," engraved in Sir Walter Scott's prose works, by J. M. W. Turner, R. A., 180 gs.; "Piacenza," engraved in Sir Walter Scott's "Life of Napoleon," by J. M. W. Turner, R.A, 165 gs.; and a landscape by D. Cox, 175 gs.

The Exchange Company's Manchester correspondent is informed that David Cox's celebrated picture, "The Vale of Clwyd," bought by Messrs. Agnew on Saturday at the Murrieta sale, was not purchased for the Manchester City Art Gallery, but by Messrs. Agnew for themselves.

THE WESTERN RAILWAY.

Mr. Editor.

I notice in the 'Editors table' of yesterday's edition of your paper, that a Mr. Shoo was robbed of a valuable scarf pin whilst taking his ticket at the Once railway station. I myself, for the first time during a residence of over thirty years in Buenos Ayres, had my pocket picked in the same station and under similar circumstances, a short time since. The crush to obtain tickets at the Once station on most days, but more particularly for the early trains on Sundays and Feast days, is a scandal which could be easily prevented: at present ladies cannot get near the ticket window, and men have to fight their way out; the present barriers are worse than useless because the public being allowed to enter from both ends, the passenger who has succeeded in getting a ticket cannot withdraw without fighting his way back through the crush. The remedy is to to replace the old barriers or approaches which existed when the line belonged to the Provincial Government, and as then place a porter to prevent the public from entering by the outlet.

I have on two occasions called the attention of the station master to what was going on, but he politely turned his back on me as though the matter were beneath his notice. I trust it may now be brought under Mr. Roberts' notice and a remedy provided.

There is another matter to which I am requested to call the manager's attention by more than one lady, who travels frequently by that line, and that is to the want in the Once station of a ladies' waiting room provided with those conveniences so necessary to all, but especially to those who travel with children. I am quite sure that Mr. Roberts will not like it to be said that the convenience of the public is less cared for under English management than when the line belonged to the Provincial Government.

An old traveller.

CAMPANA AND CAPILLA DEL SEÑOR.

Those who remember the town and district of Capilla del Señor in the good old days would scarcely recognise it now; nor is the change at all flattering from an English point of view, for where formerly the Irish sheepfarmer held undisputed sway, the Italian chacarero now drives the plough, and unless the traveller is fortunate enough to come across the happy homes of Messrs. Gaynor, Tormy, Culligan, Scully, or some other of our countrymen, with hearts as big as their own estancias, he has but a poor chance of receiving much hospitality. An Italian doctor occupies the house where formerly the English physician dwelt, the requirements of the Irish people being attended to by Dr. Macksey, who runs out on the train once a week for hours. The Irish clergyman is Father Purcell, who is much esteemed.

The Central Argentine Railway branch from Victoria is now finished, although not yet open to the public, and Lacroze's steam tram was inaugurated last Sunday, amidst much noise and rejoicing. The sale of the contractor's effects, under the immediate supervision of Messrs McDonald and Dixon, civil engineers, drew a large crowd of bidders and good prices.

A very sad event was the sudden death of Mr. Michael Scully, third son of Mr. Scully of Campana. He received the last rites of the Church from Father Mulleady. On Wednesday his remains were conveyed to the family vault at Capilla del Señor; among the persons present were Messrs. Paul O'Neil, Michael Brennan, Thos. Cunnyngham, Jn. and Gregory O'Donnell, J. Maguire, D. Morgan, Pat. Lyons, Jordan, Murphy, Thos. and Jn. Machue, Juan Suberry, Torroba, Tomas Hernando, P. Dillon, Tormy Bros., Mateo Dillon, P. Clancy, Real, Jose Parkes, Fernando Basso, Juez de Paz of San Antonio, Cipriano Arriston, Martin Bidart, Julio Perery, Intendente of Giles, Prudencio Carboni, Benito Vasquez. Also the following ladies:—Mrs. John Scully and daughter, Mrs. Culligan and daughters, Miss Clinton, Mrs. Cassidy, Mrs. Barber and children, Mrs. Real, Mrs. Gaynor and Miss Maguire, &c., &c. There were many handsome wreaths.

ST. ANDREWS 2ND. XI VERSUS B. A. BAND OF HOPE.

The above match was played on Wednesday last on the old Caledonian's ground, the result being an easy win for the St. Andrews by 8 goals to 2. Very little can be said about the lossers as this was their first match, the club only being formed a few weeks ago. Mr. Carthy and Cooke, full backs, being the only players who shewed any form.

For the Saints the Brother Bridges and Brooking, forwards, played a good game. R. Brooking having 4 goals out of the eight scored and Bridge 3. Anderson, back, along with Frost played a very shady and defensive game, the opposing forwards very seldom getting near the goal-keeper (Schaefer.)

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The "Sol de Mayo" still shines over us. Never before have we had such summery weather. People who live in the suburbs are in the Seventh Heaven. Even those living in the hotels, take the tramways at an early hour, and for a few cents get a mouthful of fresh air before breakfast; search the world over, there is no place to beat Buenos Ayres for fine weather, and as things are improving and President Pellegrini admits that the crisis is over, we all feel in good spirits. This time last year we were all in the dumps. The run on the banks was beginning, the crisis was so bad that the tramways were without passengers and the streets without carts.

Good news for us all. The steamer Villarino is expected in to-morrow with a large consignment of gold from Tierra del Fuego. We hope some of the gold diggers will pay us a visit and leave us a few samples for our Museum.

The whole truth is out now about the state of siege, conspiracy etc. We give in another column a precis of the President's Message to Congress. It will doubtless interest many of our readers but as the affair has now blown over and blown up we hope all parties will shake hands and make friends.

We return our best thanks to Mr. Edward Madero for a copy of his new book «The History of the Port of Buenos Aires», beautifully printed and got up. The author in his preface says the book is not published for sale or profit, but merely to present to those tried friends who always stood by him and lent him their moral support during the dark times of his splendid and magnificent enterprise. The docks are beyond question the greatest works in the country, they stand and represent every dollar spent on them. When we finish the works we must put up a statue to Eduardo Madero at the head of Dock No. 3.

The fine French steamer Provence left Dock No. 3 yesterday for Europe. The fast Italian steamer «Duchessa di Genova» sails on 3rd June. She will make the run home in 16 days to Barcelona. Sr. Mascasini, her captain, is a thorough Englishman, he knows Shakespeare off by heart as well as Dante. He says that the best English is spoken in Londonderry and we think he is not far out. As for the English spoken in Glasgow or London he could not understand a word.

«Put out the light.» Our friends in La Plata are all in the greatest alarm, as the news is the Government asked the Company to put up 25 more lights back on me as though the matter were beneath his notice. I trust it may now be brought under Mr. Roberts' notice and a remedy provided.

Hayward's Paste Dip
The best test of a Sheep Dip

PRACTICAL RESULTS OF USING A RELIABLE DIP WHICH CURES THE SCAB AND IMPROVES THE WOOL.

The following testimonial is received from Messrs Ronald & Rogers, the celebrated Brokers for River Plate wools at Liverpool who sold a number of lots of wool from some of the largest Estancieros in the River Plate.

COPY TESTIMONIAL

Telegraphic Address—Ronald, Liverpool, Exchange Chambers, Bixteth Street, Liverpool, 19th Feb. 1892.

Dear Sirs—
Amongst the River Plate Wools which we have sold here this season, our attention has been called to several clips which had been treated with Hayward's "Paste" Sheep Dip, and we have pleasure in testifying to the freedom from scab, and handsome lustrous appearance of these wools, which we consider materially assisted in their obtaining such very good prices.

ON 'CHANGE.

Saturday, May 28th.

The settlement of the week was more important than anticipated, and a large amount was supplied for the requirements of gold of the first ring. Gold was superabundant and prices fell headlong. Twenty thousand ounces changed hands: the price opened at $53.90, fell steadily, and closed at 53.50, say 228¾ % premium. Sovereigns were very dull at $16.65, say 230¾ % premium. The market closed heavy.

Patriotic Bonds were firm and in better demand; prices closed at 63.10 for the 31st, 62.90 for cash and 63.70 for end of June. Internal Bonds advanced to 57.40 for cash and 58 for end of June. Old Gas shares are still rising; they touched 87 to-day. La Plata Cedulas remained firm all round.

Exchange was a shade weaker than yesterday: rates were nominal. Discounts are daily easier.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

Ounces—
For cash.... 19,162 at 53.90-80-70 - 60-50

Sovereigns—

ductos Argentinos to proceed to the American Exhibition in Genoa. Mr. Lix Klett also made a present of a splendid display of grain and corn. All the Italian consignees and grain brokers are delighted at the disinterested manner in which Mr. Lix Klett has taken to heart the Italian Exhibition.

Arrivals of hay at the Plaza Once are very heavy, and prices are weak, in view of the large supply and falling-off in the consumption of the city; in other words, carriages and carriage-horses are no longer so numerous.

The "invernadores" near this capital complain of the drought, and say that the season is bad for fattening.

The Platense steamer Mercurio is expected back from Patagones next week with 400 tons for salt of the Rio Negro Salt Co. Ld.

Advices from the Neuquen state that 200 Chilian Indians invaded that territory by the Longuimay pass, sacking estancias, driving away all the animals, and killing settlers. The Argentine forces were unable to repel the invasion. The Argentine War Office should station a whole division of the army along the Neuquen frontier line to prevent the recurrence of such terrible depredations.

Cheques of the National Bank closed to-day at 20 % discount sellers; prices were quite nominal, as no business was done. Provincial Bank cheques were at 52½ % discount. Bonos were in demand at 51-1, closing at 15.

Mr. Wm. Slater was welcomed to-day on his return from the Andes, where he went in connection with his telegraph enterprise. Mr. Slater states that the cold was intense, but the weather still firm and all the passes free.

The Caja de Conversion burnt to-day $504,000, notes of the Banco de Mendoza.

The Minister of Finance issued orders to-day for the payment in London in Moratoribus Bonds of £110,896 to the Buenos Ayres Pacific Railway Co., on account of half-year's guarantee up to Sept. 30, 1891.

The gold market ruled very weak at the second ring; five thousand ounces changed hands for Monday; the price opened at $53.90, fell to 53.20, rose, and closed at 53.50, in the midst of a slight bullish rally, say the same rate as in the morning. Patriotic Bonds were very active and firm. A few Italian Bank shares changed hands at 86. La Plata Cedulas fell off, closing at 30.20 to 30.30.

TEA
INJURIOUS TEA DRINKING.
In the "Daily Post" of September 2 appears a leading article—evidently from an analytical expert—showing that after 15 minutes "draw," Indian Tea yields 17-73 of tannin, while from China comes only 7-93. What this means few know, but those troubled with indigestion may realise in part by use of True China Tea for one week.
GUARANTEED PURE.
Beware of gross, imitations of this well-known mark. Sold in tins of 1, 3, 6 and 12 lbs.

8°—Los Certificados Provisorios por fraccion de un titulo de $100 con una o dos cuotas pagadas de $25 se recibiran como valor efectivo por la cantidad pagada con "cincuenta centavos" de mas para los de una cuota y "un peso" para los de dos, como intereses devengados en el primer trimestre vencido en 1° de Julio de 1891.

9°—Los intereses devengados por los titulos del Emprestito Nacional Interno que no se hayan cobrado seran recibidos como dinero efectivo, entregando al efecto los suscritores los cupones respectivos.

10°—Los intereses devengados por los Certificados Provisorios, fuera de determinados en la base 8°, se devolveran a los suscritores una vez cerrada la suscricion y efectuada la liquidacion correspondiente.
